

GIT-microbiology

Archive

Lecture 5

H pylori & Campylopacter

micro - lecture (5)

questions:

- 1) The media that helicobacter pylori needed to grow is:
 - A. acidic.
 - B. Microaerophillic.
 - C. Basic.
 - D. Lactose.
 - E. Mannitol.

Answer: B

- 2) H. Pylori is in:
 - A. fundus
 - B. cardial notch
 - C. body of stomach
 - D. antrum

Answer: D

- 3) Which one of these is not the common laboratory test for the identification of Helicobacter pylori?
 - A. Biopsy test
 - B. Urine test
 - C. Stool antigen test
 - D. Urease breath test
 - E. Serum test

Answer: B

micro - lecture (5)

4) All the following is true regarding H.pylori except?

- A. Catalase positive oxidase negative
- B. Urease positive
- C. Motile
- D. Lophotrious flagella

Answer: A

5) What is the best test for H.pylori?

- A. Urea breath test
- B. Stomach endoscope
- C. Antibody titer test

Answer: A